

EMU

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

UNIVERSITY

Utah Public Official's Conference

Department of Public Safety
Division of Homeland Security

Park City, Utah
August 25-26, 2005

CLASS SCHEDULE

Thursday, August 25, 2005

7:00 - 8:30	Registration	Yarrow Hotel Lobby
8:30 - 9:15	Welcome &amp; Awards Verdi White Director, Division of Homeland Security Dr. Richard Melton Utah Department of Health Commissioner Robert Flowers Department of Public Safety	Ballroom A, B, C
9:15 - 10:00	Agroterrorism The session will serve as an introduction to the issues associated with agroterrorism. The presentation will use the California Newcastle outbreak as a model and introduce the principles of "red teaming" to assess current state detection and response plans. Robert Norton, Ph.D., Auburn University	Ballroom A, B, C
10:00 - 10:15	Break
10:15 - 11:45	Leadership and Meta-Leadership for State and Local Preparedness: Connectivity, Negotiation and Problem Solving Strategies This seminar teaches pragmatic skills and methods that immediately translate into improved practice capacities for participants. Lessons learned from extensive investigation of terrorism preparedness in Israel conducted by the Harvard School of Public Health Center for Public Health Preparedness are incorporated into the seminar. The very fact that participants learn a shared vocabulary and practical methods contributes to improved connectivity.	Ballroom A, B, C

Leonard J. Marcus, Ph.D. Harvard Center for Public Health
Preparedness, Harvard School of Public Health

11:45 - 12:45 Lunch

12:45 - 1:15 Awards & Keynote Ballroom A, B, C
Commissioner Robert Flowers
Department of Public Safety
Governor Jon Huntsman
State of Utah

1:15 - 1:30 Break

Please choose from the following electives...

1:30 - 2:15 Breakout Session I

A. You Do the Math the Value of Public Assistance Ballroom A
This session is designed to give an overview of the federal public assistance program in order to enhance planning and mitigation activities.
Ryan Pietramali, Utah Division of Homeland Security

B. Value Based Emergency Management Ballroom B
The height of your accomplishment will equal the depth of your convictions - William F. Scolavino
One person with belief is equal to the force of ninety-nine who have only interests - Anonymous
Keep with the drummer you hear, however measured or far away - Henry David Thoreau
Mike Stever, Salt Lake City Emergency Management

C. Contemporary Dance - Public Information Ballroom C
This class will provide an overview of the delivery of Public Information to the media for public officials and others that may need to disseminate information in an event or emergency.
Derek Jensen, Utah Division of Homeland Security

D. Weather Service 101 Ivers Hearst
Rich Giraud, Department of Natural Resources

E. Quarantine & Isolation Overview Mt. View
This session will provide a basic overview of court-ordered Quarantine and Isolation for attorneys and public health officials. Upon completion of this session participants will:
Be presented new, clear and standard forms.
Be able to complete the standardized forms.
Doug Springmeyer, JD, State of Utah Office of the Attorney General

F. Chillin' at the Frat House Vendor Tent
Make sure you enter to win at the vendor tables.

2:15 - 2:30 Break

2:30 - 3:15

Breakout Session II

A. Marriage Counseling: The Coupling of Railroads and Hazmat Ballroom A

This session will address the railroad system in Utah, and how to interface with railroad personal as a first responder.

Derald Olsen, Utah Railway Company

B. Effectively Communicating and Planning with People with Disabilities

Ballroom B

With over 25 years of experience in the disability community, Dr. Holt brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to all of her training activities. This session will discuss emergency planning for people with disabilities.

Dr. Judith Holt, Center for Persons with Disabilities, Utah State University

C. Disaster Resources - Part I

Ballroom C

Ever wonder about the different federal teams that you hear about on the news, this session will identify resources that are available to communities during a disaster and how to access those resources.

Stan Krol, FEMA Region VIII

D. Homeland Economics: Understanding the Grant Process & Other Valuable Information - Part I

Ivers Hearst

Prerequisite - NONE: Designed for the entry-level student who is interested in the functions and objectives of Federal and State Homeland Security programs, training and available resources. The three-chapter class will be taught as a two-breakout session course and will include three separate chapters of study.

Chapter 1: Strategic Planning - A holistic approach to grant funding and inclusive strategic design with an overview of the limits and intent of federal grant requirements and programs

Chapter 2: Infrastructure Identification and Protection Assistance - "First-Preventer" training programs providing the "first-preventers" with the timely and focused training needed to protect themselves and their organizations and the critical infrastructures they operate and support.

Chapter 3: Utah Homeland Security objectives include: Developing information Sharing Networks, training and resources through State programs and initiatives to prepare Utah against economic interruptions

Todd VanCantfort, US Department of Homeland Security

Scott Behunin, US Department of Homeland Security

Renee Murphy, Utah Division of Homeland Security

E. Overview of Mass Casualty Incident Plans

Mt. View

This session will provide an overview of Utah's Mass Casualty Incident Plan.

Upon completion of this session the participant will: Understand the components of the Mass Casualty Incident Plan for the State of Utah.

Dru Fry, RN, BSN, Utah Department of Health

F. Visiting the Dorms

Vendor Tent

Use this time to visit the vendors!

3:15 - 3:30 Break

3:30 - 4:15

Breakout Session III

A. Performing Arts: Principles of Presenting

Ballroom A

This course focuses on the art of presenting. Covering topics from adult learning styles to attention grabbing presentation tips, participants will walk away prepared to captivate their audiences.

Lisa Cook, Utah Division of Homeland Security

B. Identity Theft: The Taking of America

Ballroom B

This presentation will provide an introduction to why identity theft is the fastest growing crime in America and why it continues to escalate.

Detective Rick Childress, Ogden City Police Department

C. Disaster Resources - Part II

Ballroom C

This presentation will be an overview of the National Disaster Medical System (NDMS). The presentation will cover a brief system description of NDMS and an in depth review of the medical teams/resources available during Federally declared disasters.

Stan Krol, FEMA Region VIII

Wendy Cline, 85th Civil Support Team

Civil Air Patrol

E. Homeland Economics: Understanding the Grant Process & Other Valuable Information - Part II

Ivers Hearst

Prerequisite - NONE: Designed for the entry-level student who is interested in the functions and objectives of Federal and State Homeland Security programs, training and available resources. The three-chapter class will be taught as a two-breakout session course and will include three separate chapters of study.

Chapter 1: Strategic Planning - A holistic approach to grant funding and inclusive strategic design with an overview of the limits and intent of federal grant requirements and programs

Chapter 2: Infrastructure Identification and Protection Assistance - "First-Preventer" training programs providing the "first-preventers" with the timely and focused training needed to protect themselves and their organizations and the critical infrastructures they operate and support.

Chapter 3: Utah Homeland Security objectives include: Developing information Sharing Networks, training and resources through State programs and initiatives to prepare Utah against economic interruptions.

The course concludes.

Todd VanCantfort, US Department of Homeland Security

Scott Behunin, US Department of Homeland Security

Renee Murphy, Utah Division of Homeland Security

E. Resources for Medical Emergencies and How to Access Them Mt. View

This session will orient participants to the emergency resources available through the Utah Department of Health that could be used during a mass casualty, all hazards, or public health threat or disaster. Resources include disaster medical and mortuary teams (DMATs, DMORTs), disaster response units (DRUs), environmental containment units (ECUs), SNS, EMS strike teams, pharmaceutical caches, and other resources.

Scott Westbroek

F. Educate and Exchange

Vendor Tent

Check out the cool prizes donated by the vendors!

4:15 - 4:30 Break

4:30 - 6:30 Frat Party: Conference Social
Ridin' The Fault Line - Band

Vendors Tent, Ballroom A

Friday, August 20, 2004

9:00 - 9:45

Breakout Session IV

A. Private Industry to Government

Ballroom A

An introduction to private public partnerships and how government can do out reach to involve all members of the private sector in emergency planning through exercises, planning and training activities.

Brit Webber, School of Criminal Justice, Michigan State University

B. The Theory and Practice of Plans, Training, and Exercise - Mastering The "Tricks of the Trade"

Ballroom B

Explore an open range of ideas to help you pioneer improvements in your exercise program. Learn the ropes for mastering the "tricks of the trade".

Kari Sagers, Tooele County Emergency Management

Marilyn Candelaria, Tooele County Emergency Management

C. Disaster Sociology: Managing People in a Crisis

Ballroom C

A discussion on strategies for handling the unique human dynamics that exist between people during a disaster, lessons learned and practices that work and don't work.

Ken Kraudy, Sandy City Emergency Management

Marsha Millet, Sandy City Emergency Management

D. Mythology 101: Public Information

Ivers Hearst

Dwayne Baird, Salt Lake City Police

E. Planning for Responses to Bioterrorism and Emerging Infections (Repeat)

Mt. View

This session will provide an overview of the major Bioterrorism agents of concern (CDC's Category A agents) and the threats from emerging infections that could produce results similar to Bioterrorism. The presentation will then focus on major aspects of planning for responses to the threats, using experiences during prior exercises and "real world" events to underscore the significance of the "4 Cs" of Command and Control, Communication, and Coordination in developing plans. The need for realistic exercises of plans will also be considered.

Dr. Royce Moser, Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational and Environmental Health, University of Utah

F. Tools for the Trade

Vendor Tent

Find out more about products for your jurisdiction or agency!

9:45 - 10:00 Break - check out of hotel rooms

10:00 - 10:45

Breakout Session V

A. It's Our Fault: Earthquake Tabletop Exercise

Ballroom A

Participants will be given a brief overview of how to successfully create and conduct an earthquake tabletop exercise; then they will be given the opportunity to explore the complexities of immediate response issues by participating in an actual Earthquake Tabletop Exercise.

Mike Stever, Salt Lake City Emergency Management

B. Harmful Hacking 201: Cyberterrorism

Ballroom B

Michael Allred, State of Utah

C. Status of the Stockpile - Reduced Risk Ballroom C
The status of the Deseret Chemical Depot's chemical weapons stockpile and an update on the Tooele Chemical Agent Disposal Facility.
Colonel Raymond T. Van Pelt, Deseret Chemical Depot

D. Culinary Arts: Finding the Right Ingredients for VOAD Ivers Hearst
Joshua Pederson, 211 Info Bank

F. Planning for Responses to Bioterrorism and Emerging Infections (Repeat) Mt. View
This session will provide an overview of the major Bioterrorism agents of concern (CDC's Category A agents) and the threats from emerging infections that could produce results similar to Bioterrorism. The presentation will then focus on major aspects of planning for responses to the threats, using experiences during prior exercises and "real world" events to underscore the significance of the "4 Cs" of Command and Control, Communication, and Coordination in developing plans. The need for realistic exercises of plans will also be considered.
Dr. Royce Moser, Rocky Mountain Center for Occupational and Environmental Health, University of Utah

F. Vendor Time Vendor Tent
Last chance to sign up and win!

10:45 - 11:00 Break

11:00 - 11:45 Humor is Not Rocket Science Ballroom A, B, C
Come study the art of humor and the ability to use it in your daily life to help get through those hard times and hard knocks.
Robert Kirby, Salt Lake Tribune

11:45 - 12:00 Closing Remarks